HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Vernon Bullard of Burlington is to be the Memorial day speaker at New Haven.

Each teacher in the public schools of Bennington will receive a $100 increase next year.

The Crystal Lake Ice company of Barre has raised its prices five cents per 100 pounds.

The Rutland fair, held in September, will be a big patriotic or war fair, with military features.

Forty persons united with the Universalist church in Brattleboro April 24. A special service was held that evening.

From the office of the Kurn Hattin Homes, the home for boys at Westminster, flies a service flag with 34 stars.

Wagoner Fred Bonney of Fairfax, in the supply company, 101st field artillery, France, has been reported killed in action.

Mrs. Porter H. Dale, wife of Congressman Dale, has come from Washington, D. C., to their home in Island Pond, which has been opened for the summer.

Twin sons, Franklin Alvin and Francis Hall Ayer, were born April 20 to Private and Mrs. Rose A. Ayer of Bolton Falls. Private Ayer is stationed at Portsmouth, N. H.

E. G. Robinson tapped 27 maples at his home in Underhill and made 110 pounds of sugar and four gallons of syrup, besides what was used in the family through sugaring.

The postoffice at West Derby is to be discontinued April 30. That place being now a part of Newport City, the carrier service is to be extended, the streets have been renamed and houses numbered.

The Methodist and Congregational churches in Wilder have federated. A pastor will be sent from the Methodist conference to serve the church for the coming year.

Two Vermont men were among those who graduated recently from the third officers' training camp, 7th division, Camp Meade, Maryland. William F. Hayes, Burlington infantry, William E. LaPlant, Newport, infantry.

Mrs. E. C. Lloyd and Miss Zelle Farnham, who were killed by gas fumes in the cellar of their apartment in East Weymouth, Mass., recently, had spent the summer for many years in Barre with Mrs. Annie Sturtevant, niece of Mrs. Lloyd.

Ray, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown of Middlebury, was run over by an automobile driven by Norman S. Foote April 25 and the child's leg was broken four inches from the hip. He jumped from a team in front of the car and the accident was unavoidable.

The engagement is announced of Miss Lois Redmond, daughter of John W. Redmond of Newport, and Dr. Ernest M. Daland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett G. Daland of Wakefield, Mass. Dr. Daland is enrolled in the medical enlisted reserve corps and awaits call to duty.

Little Carroll Bridge of South Windham, who has the whooping cough, and for whose comfort a vapo-cresoline lamp was burning, overturned it and spilled the liquid into his eyes and on his face, burning him badly. It is not known yet how badly his eyes are injured.

The following Vermonters now at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., have been chosen to attend the training camp for engineers officers at Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va.: William H. Bradley, Swanton, Harry F. Douglas, Brattleboro, Clarence R. Adams, Rutland.

Francis Carter, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Carter of West Rutland, who was reported to the police as having run away from home, has been found in Rutland. The lad intimated that he left home because his father had remonstrated him.

On Saturday afternoon, June 1, a service to celebrate the coding of the first Sunday school convention in the United States, which was held in Greenboro 101 years ago, will be dedicated. The marker will be unveiled by one of the descendants of Mr. Hale, in whose barn the first convention was held.

J. Scott Eastman, one of the oldest employees of the Boston & Maine railroad, died at his home in Norwich, April 13. Mr. Eastman was born in Union Village in 1840 and had been in the employ of the road for more than 50 years. In June, 1913, the company retired him with a pension, since which time he had lived on his farm. He was educated at St. Johnsbury, and studied for the ministry of the Methodist church.

Four colored women have been added to the ranks of the Central Vermont railway employees at the roundhouse in White River Junction. They are employed as engine wipers. Shortage of help made this a necessity. At the engine house in St. Albans four women are also employed and others have sent in applications for similar employment. All the women wear men's garments and do men's work.

Private William Pierce, Bellows Falls, of the 102nd machine gun battalion was killed in action in France on April 20. He was a member of the old Co. E of the Vermont National Guard and served on the Mexican border. Relatives of Pierce are Mrs. G. F. Landers and Miss Mary G. Pierce, sisters, living at Bellows Falls, and a brother, John J. Pierce, of Boston.

Mrs. Neoma Noland, niece of Robert H. Ingersoll, the millionaire watchmaker of New York City, who ran away with and married Arthur H. Liberty of St. Johnsbury in May, 1915, is now seeking for a divorce in the courts of Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Liberty lived for a time in St. Johnsbury and there their only son was born. Mrs. Liberty is now teaching music in Moscow, Idaho, and her husband is a chauffeur in Montreal. Mrs. Liberty has the boy, but both sides are seeking his custody.

A fire in the Boston & Maine roundhouse in South Vermont April 25 caused a loss of $20,000. Ernest L. Gladden of Northampton, Mass., division superintendent of bridge building for the company, was seriously injured when a quantity of brick and mortar fell some 25 feet on him.

struck him on the head. He is 36 years old. The fire broke out during the night from an unknown cause. The building was destroyed, one freight engine and one passenger engine were badly damaged and a house back of the engine house, occupied by an Italian employee, was also burned.

The Vermont Milk Chocolate company will begin work on a new factory in Burlington as soon as possible, following the total destruction of the plant by fire Thursday night. Boston architects will draw new plans and work will be rushed. The power plant and the recently installed plant for cooling the chocolate by the ammonia process can be salvaged. About eight freight carsloads of granulated sugar were stored on the top floor. Burlington merchants co-operate with the owners of the plant in its rebuilding.

The body of the young man which was found in Lake Champlain the first of the week has been identified by Mrs. William Noonan of Bristol as that of her son, Lawrence H. Barry. Young Barry left home February 9 and had not been heard from since. Identification was made by a ring, pin and button on the young man's coat. Burial was made Tuesday, but on the arrival of his mother and stepfather, the body was exhumed and after Mrs. Noonan had identified it, it was sent to Bristol for burial in the family lot.

Montreal previous to the disappearance of young Barry had been employed at the box factory at New Haven Mills.

A. H. Smith of West Glover, who started from Barre for Boston, to visit his parents before he entered the army as a draftee, lost $37 in cash on the train to Boston on a recent afternoon. He failed to miss the money until he attempted to pay the conductor for a ticket on the train which he had caught at the last moment. With only 75 cents in his pocket, he purchased a ticket for West Burke, the first station, left the train there and walked back to Barre, 15 miles, reaching there at 7 p. m.

In the meantime, the money had been found by Clarence Lang, who had left it at the office of the Barton Monitor, and there the loser found it when he inquired. He caught the train a second time and sped on toward the Hub.

Sergeant Charles Henry Wilson of McIntosh Falls, the first man from Barre to go into the trenches, was married at the former village April 24 to Miss Mary McLaughlin of Montreal. The bridegroom was dressed in the full uniform of the Canadian army. He has a record of honor in the war, but has now been honorably discharged. Mr. Wilson left McIntosh in January, 1917, and enlisted in the Canadian army. He sailed from Montreal March 22 and landed in Liverpool April 4, the ship barely making port after striking a mine. He was in camp in England three weeks, and in France

H. M. FARNHAM'S 88TH BIG COMBINATION Auction Sale

Horses and Other Property will be held at his stables on Northfield St., Montpelier, Vt., on at 1 o'clock sharp in the afternoon.

WE SHALL HAVE FOR THIS SALE

30 Fresh Iowa and Dakota Horses

Carload on the way from the West now, the kind we usually handle, blood and chunks, most of them right out of work and ready for business here, running all the way in weight from 1,100 to 1,700 lbs. We may have a few second-hand horses of our own, but everything is being picked up and sold pretty quick, as there is quite a shortage of second-hand horses and the fresh ones are going fast. We know at this time of quite a few COMMISSION HORSES and we ought to have for this sale from 20 to 30 different kinds and different values. If you have anything in the line of horses that you wish to clean out and dispose of, this will be a good time to sell and convert them into cash. Quite a scarcity of second-hand horses—we have customers for quite a number at the present time. All of our horses are sold on a 30-day trial. DOUBLE WORK AND DRIVE HARNESS, and always something in the WAGON AND CARRIAGE LINE, plenty of ROBES AND BLANKETS—all kinds, also WHIPS AND HALTERS. Bring in your horses, also cattle, hogs, poultry, farm tools, carriages, wagons, and in the personal property line. Everything is selling well and we can get you the cash. Attend this, the first of May big sale. Usual terms of credit. Lunch-room on the grounds.

COMMISSIONS CHARGED FOR SELLING HORSES—All of our horses are sold on a 30-day trial. No horse sold or put through the ring for less than $20.00 commission. A commission will be charged for all horses sold either at private or public sale on the grounds. Cattle, hogs, poultry, wagons, harnesses, farm tools, furniture or other property, 10 per cent. commission.
